Are you committed to the well-being of Hartford youth?

Help youth who have been arrested for minor offenses forge a better path by listening to their cases, asking questions and helping them determine how they can right their wrongs and give back to the community.

Learn more about the Hartford JRB at thevillage.org/JRB.

Responsibilities:

- Required on-going training on balanced and restorative justice
- Objectively hear the cases of youth between the ages 7–17 years old who have been arrested for minor offenses
- Engage in asking select questions and helping to recommend how youth can right their wrong and give back to the Hartford community

Qualifications:

- Age 21+
- Hartford resident or work in Hartford
- Familiarity with community resources is helpful

Locations & Times

The Village Center for Family Life
105 Spring Street
Hartford, CT 06105

Tuesdays from 3-6pm

The Village
331 Wethersfield Avenue
Hartford, CT 06105

Thursdays from 9am-12pm

Contact

Robert L. Brown
RLBrown@thevillage.org
860-236-4511 x3883

Gloria Lewis
glewis@thevillage.org
860-236-4511 x3716

The Hartford Juvenile Review Board is a partnership of The Village for Families & Children, the City of Hartford Department of Families, Children, Youth and Recreation – Division for Youth, and The Connecticut Department of Children and Families.